Big Gray Walls Are Almost Filled To Capacity, With Over 1,400 Unfortunates

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Apr. 8.—There were 1408 prisoners in the Kentucky State Reformatory here on March 31st, of whom 398 were from Fayette and Jefferson counties, according to a statement of the number of prisoners in the institution by county given out here today by Superintendent H. V. Bastin. The crowded condition of the prison is such, according to the superintendent, that unless something is done within the next ninety days the institution will be filled beyond its capacity, as at present approximately 300 cells are housing two prisoners each at night.

The influx of prisoners sent to the institution for incarceration from one year to life has been growing heavier every month during the past six, according to prison officials, 114 having been received during March. With the circuit courts holding terms during April and with crowded criminal dockets, it is expected that many more will be received during the month.

Only one prisoner has been paroled since last December. The Governor has thirty or forty paroles on his desk awaiting his approval before the State Board of Charities and Corrections can release the prisoners. Every prisoner paroled, however, must have a position paying a living wage before he is released.

Of the 1408 prisoners in the institution on March 31, 271 were from Jefferson county and 127 were from Fayette. Harlan county was next with 66 and Bell and Pike next with 44 each.

The number of prisoners from other counties now in the institution follows:

Adair 8; Boone 7; Boyd 29; Bracken 1; Bullitt 2; Campbell 26; Carter 10; Christian 1; Clay 3; Cumberland 10; Estill 10; Fleming 2; Franklin 22; Garrard 7; Grayson 2; Greenup 9; Harrison 7; Henderson 3; Hopkins 3; Johnson 13; Knott 1; Larnie 3; Lawrence 11; Leslie 11; Lewis 8; Logan 1; Magoffin 3; Marshall 2; Mason 14; Mercer 10; Monroe 7; Morgan 3; McCrory 14; Nicholas 5; Owen 3; Pendleton 2; Pulaski 19; Rowan 2; Shelby 13; Taylor 2; Trigg 1; Warren 2; Wayne 10; Whitley 25; Barren 7; Wolf 2; Anderson 8; Bourbon 21; Boyle 26; Breathitt 24; Calloway 1; Carroll 11; Casey 10; Clark 33; Clinton 6; Daviess 1; Floyd 18; Gallatin 1; Grant 8; Green 1; Hart 5; Henry 5; Jackson 6; Jessamine 16; Kenton 34; Knox 10; Laurel 24; Lee 17; Letcher 31; Lincoln 14; Madison 29; Marion 9; Martin 8; Menifee 1; Metcalfe 2; Montgomery 17; McCracken 1; Nelson 6; Oldham 6; Owsley 4; Perry 42; Powell 3; Rockcastle 4; Russell 6; Spencer 4; Todd 1; Trimble 1; Washington 4; Webster 1; Woodford 5; Bath 8 and Scott 11.

ENGRAVING BUREAU TO BE "HARDINGIZED"

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 8.—The bank note, bond and postage stamp divisions of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing will be closed tonight for an indefinite period in order to take an inventory of the plant from which James L. Wilmet, and 28 chiefs, superintendents and foremen were removed by presidential order a week ago. The closing follows a conference yesterday between Louis Hill, the newly appointed director and treasury officials. It is hinted the bureau will be reorganized or "Hardingized" as one official put it, during the shut down and about 1,500 employees discharged to bring the number down to the pre-war level.

MADISON HI DEBATORS WIN AT SOMERSET

Madison Hi won a notable victory in oratory Friday night when the Madison team of debaters won from the Somerset Hi team at Somerset.

Madison Hi's team was composed of Harold Gabby, Pauline Ward and Lafon Wilson. Prof. B. F. Gabby, who chaperoned the local representatives to the Pulaski capital wired back the good news. Supt. J. Howard Payne and Miss Curraleeen Smith also attended the debate.

The subject of the debate was "Resolved, that the Percentage of Immigration Bill passed by the U. S. Congress in 1920 should be retained." Somerset had the affirmative and Madison Hi the negative. That the Madison debaters must have been unusually strong in their argument is demonstrated by the fact that they had the end of the argument which is usually quite unpopular with many who want to see European immigration restricted.

SULLIVAN REAPPOINTED NORMAL REGENT

Frankfort, Ky., April 8.—Gov. Morrow Friday reappointed Mrs. Lafon Riker, of Harrodsburg, and Henry P. Barrett of Henderson, as members of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, for the term of four years from March 9.

The Governor also appointed the following members of the Board of Regents of the Eastern State Normal School at Richmond, to serve four years from April 1: H. M. Brock, Harlan, and Jerre A. Sullivan, Richmond.

MRS. THACKER SUES TO BREAK FATHER'S WILL

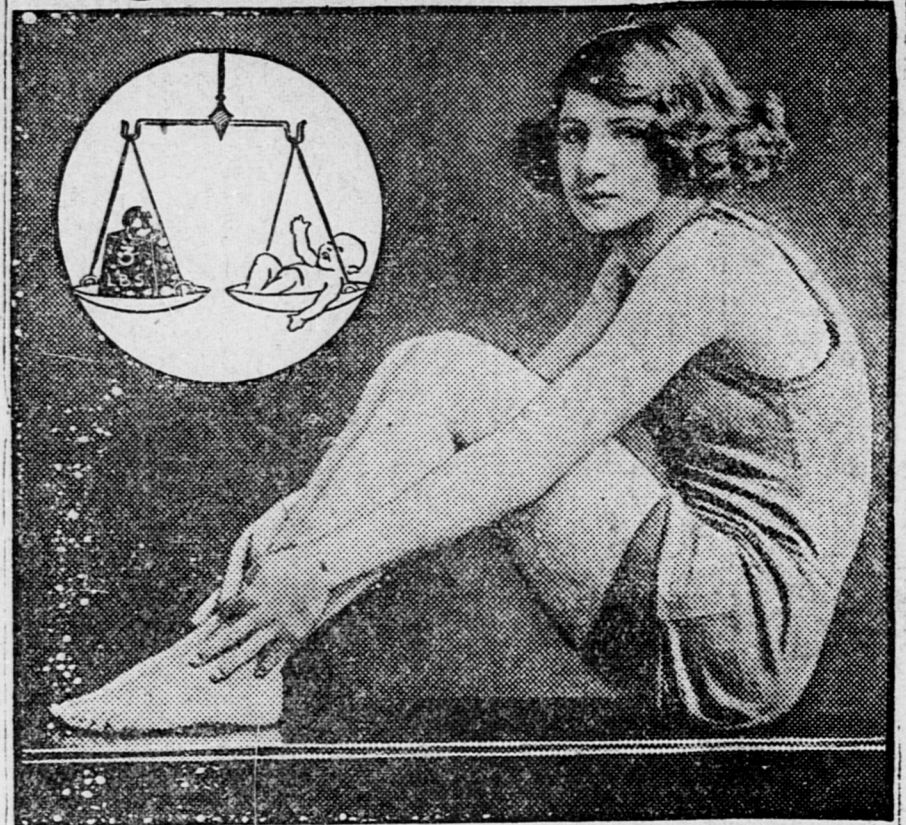

Harrodsburg, Ky., Apr. 8.—Mrs. Lucy Bailey Thacker, wife of J. M. Thacker, of Lawrenceburg, has filed suit in Mercer circuit court to break the will of her father, the late Stephen L. Bailey, who died recently, leaving a valuable estate. She is a sister of Mrs. John Noland, of Richmond.

By the will, dated in 1911, Mr. Bailey disinherited Mrs. Thacker giving as a reason that she was marrying a man not agreeable to him. No specified ground of contest is given in the petition, but it is understood that the claim is made that he brooded over the matter so long that he became unbalanced on the subject, so much so as to make him incompetent to make a will. It will also be claimed that a few months before his death he became reconciled to Mrs. Thacker bought a home for her in Lawrenceburg and assured her he had no will. The old will dated January, 1911, was found after his death in a Lexington sanitarium. The case will be tried at the May term.

COHEN REMEMBERS NOTHING OF SHOOTING

Lexington, Ky., April 8.—Agents Saturday are to decide on the mental condition of Charles Cohen, Lexington merchant, who November 3, shot and seriously wounded J. W. Porter, former banker, who was acting as receiver of Cohen's shoe store.

On the witness stand Cohen wept and said he could remember nothing from the night before the shooting until late that night, when he realized he was in the police station. He wept when asked if he remembered shooting "his best friend."

Cohen declared there had never been any enmity between him and Porter, who, as a result of the wound, was confined more than a month and is now an "old man" physicians testified. Police Lieut. Austin Price testified he had found a quantity of moonshine whisky in Cohen's possession when arrested.

Cohen admitted having taken narcotic to alleviate pain.

CAPT. R. E. TURLEY SPEAKS AT NORMAL

The faculty and students of Eastern enjoyed a rare treat at chapel Thursday morning when Capt. R. E. Turley, Jr., of the U. S. A., who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Turley, gave an interesting and highly instructive talk at the chapel exercises. He reviewed in an interesting way some of his experiences when he was a student in the school. His talk consisted chiefly in description of conditions and affairs in the Panama Canal Zone where he has been stationed for a number of years. He spoke of the wonderful achievement Uncle Sam has accomplished in that region. He affirmed with great emphasis that it is now one of the cleanest and most healthful spots on the face of the globe, whereas a few years ago it was a pest hole and a breeding place for all kinds of germs and infections. He said that flies and mosquitoes are so scarce that when one is discovered, the police alarm is sounded and the population turns out to see the "show."

Capt. Turley said that while he saw facing him 700 or 800 students, yet he realized how a few short years had changed the personnel of the institution, for out of the great crowd who sat before him he saw only two familiar faces who were here when he was a student—Dr. Grinstead and Prof. Boothe.

U. S. TROOPS REFUSED IN COAL STRIKE CASE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 8.—Secretary Weeks today refused to order federal troops into New Mexico, as asked by Governor McChesney, who said he might need them to preserve order in the Gallup coal fields where martial law was declared yesterday, as a result of disorders incident to the coal strike. Weeks after a conference with President Harding, said "Unless the disorders develop to a point where the state authorities are unable to preserve order, federal troops will not be used in connection with the coal strike."

While Weeks did not so state, it is understood the same policy will be followed to obtain the use of troops anywhere in the coal strike.

Morvich Goes In Derby

New York, April 8.—All doubt as to whether the sensational Morvich would start in the Kentucky Derby or the Preakness was settled last night when Benj. Block, owner of the undefeated three-year-old colt, in a signed statement said: "I have often said that I regard Morvich as the property of the public and recognize the right of the public to be kept fully and reliably informed concerning him. Ever since it appeared that the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness are to be run on the same day I have been fairly deluged with the inquiry, 'Will Morvich start in the Derby or the Preakness?'"

"I have all along had my heart set on winning the Derby with Morvich. My trainer Mr. Burlew, is of the opinion, based on Morvich's work up to this time, that he can be fitted for that race. He is being pointed for the Derby and only something unforeseen will keep him away from the barrier at Churchill Downs on Derby Day."

MRS. OWEN M'KEE IS CALLED HOME

Aged Mother of R. J. McKee and Miss Lydia McKee, Sinks Gently To Rest

Mrs. Owen McKee died at the home of her son, R. J. McKee, on West Main street, Friday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. She had passed her 82nd year of age. She had suffered for the last few months with a nervous collapse which finally developed into endocarditis, the immediate cause of her death.

Mrs. McKee was a woman whom everyone loved. She was born in Lexington as Mary Owens. After her marriage to Owen McKee—the Richmond merchant who preceded her to the grave by some 18 years, and whose name is still held in benediction by those who knew him—she came to Richmond and lived here the balance of her 54 years. She is survived by her two children, Mr. R. J. McKee and Miss Lydia McKee, who operate the Main street dry goods store, founded by their father.

She is also survived by several sisters, Mrs. Kate O. Clark, of Mt. Sterling, Mrs. James McArdle, of Birmingham, Alabama, and Miss Sallie Owens, of this city; also several nieces, Misses Mayne and Issie Owens, of Lexington, Misses Katie and Laura Schmidt, of this city. Mrs. McKee was a sister of the late Henry Owens, of Lexington, who was a Confederate soldier in Gen. Morgan's command. Her husband, Owen McKee, also was a Confederate soldier under Morgan.

The funeral will take place from St. Mark's church Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The obsequies will be a solemn high mass for the repose of her soul. Rev. H. B. Schulte will be the celebrant assisted by Rev. William Punch, of Lexington, and Rev. George O'Bryan, of Winchester.

Mrs. McKee was a saintly Catholic woman. Her greatest delight was that of the Prophetess Anna, "serving God in the temple." She never missed a day but what she knelt in the house of God in adoration and thanksgiving. And her charities were as big and generous as her heart that prompted them. There are many of the poor who will shed a tear for her memory and say a prayer for her salvation. God rest her soul in peace!

And The Government Pays

The excitement in congress occasioned by Senator New's daring experiment in addressing his Indiana constituents over the government radio, needs no explanation. It is clear at once even to the most obtuse of legislators that Senator New has hit on something of infinite possibilities. The great difficulty a Congressman faces is the necessity of explaining to interested voters things he does not want to explain. A congressman would be a very happy man if he could go back home and hold his public discourse to a fairly modest estimate of his own public worth; that angry and determined constituents should ask him, if a Senator, how he voted on the Newberry seat, or, if a representative, how he stands on the bonus, is, to say the least, annoying.

At this point in comes the radio. Senator New points the way to a campaign millenium, where the candidate does all the talking. He says, by implication, "Here's a good one! Let radio do it. No hall rent, no cigars, no hecklers—you don't have to explain anything, and the government pays for it."

Jimmy Murphy Tells His Experience With Dempsey

Jimmy Murphy, southern lightweight champion and former Dempsey's sparring partner, now playing here with the United States Exposition Shows, tells the following story concerning Jack Dempsey's first connection with Jack Kearns, his present manager:

Some years ago Jack Kearns had a stable of boxers over in Australia. Among others in his stalls were Joe Bonds, the heavyweight, and Red Watson, a lightweight.

The latter was the apple of Kearns' eye. It was while Red was boxing Jack Dempsey in an Oakland gymnasium that the attention of Kearns was first directed to the future champion of the world. Kearns had Watson boxing Fred McCoy one hot day down in the land of the kangaroo. Red was tubby around the waist and in poor condition. Fred was a tall, critter with a reachy left hand and he kept spearing Red and running away. Red lumbered after him, but after the second round he was out of breath and galloped up and down like a tired horse. The nimble McCoy kept well ahead of him, stabbing with his left, "Get in there and ketch him," bawled Kearns from the corner. "Keep after him." Finally Red stopped and looked at Kearns. "Say," he said, "when he comes around your way, you head him off, will you?"

When Dempsey Met Bonds

Joe Bonds, a tough heavyweight in his day, was one of Jack Dempsey's early opponents. They fought a ten round draw at a little town in Nevada along in 1916. Bonds was just back from his trip to Australia with Kearns and was still under his management, but he undertook the trip to Nevada alone. Dempsey was unknown at the time, while Bonds had something of a reputation.

"He got on the same train with me along the line," says Dempsey. "I knew who he was alright because he had his suitcase plastered with his name, but he didn't know me. I had some sandwiches and when I pulled them out he looked at them so longingly that I shared them with him. I never tipped him off that I was the man he was going to fight, but Joe told me all about himself. He said he was on his way to this town to fight and when I asked him whom he was to fight, he said 'I don't know—some egg.' When we landed in the town I ducked away from Joe because I didn't want the people to see us coming in together. They might be suspicious that we had had our heads together. I didn't see him until the next day when we were in a saloon run by the man promoting the fight. The fellow introduced us and you should have seen the expression on Joe's face when he looked at me."

During the week of April 8th to 15th, Murphy and his Congress of Athletes which includes Jack Thomas, light heavyweight champion of the A. E. F., Dolly Lewis, undisputed female champion of the world, and himself, will meet all comers both boxing and wrestling, at the show grounds where the United States Exposition Shows open a full blast tonight.

News of the Federation

The local federation of music clubs has announced its annual contest in piano and students are asking for information.

The contest will be held in 3 classes as formerly and prizes will be awarded in the same way: Five dollars to the winners in the puer and intermediate, and a scholarship for the summer term at the Louisville Conservatory of Music to the winner in the senior division. Mrs. T. D. Chenault, the able president of the Richmond federations, will name the chairman of the contest in a few days and those who wish to enter may report. The Richmond Federation of Music Clubs was organized about twelve years ago, at which time there were four separate clubs as follows: Cecilian Club, Mary Pattie Club, Sherwood Club and the Apollo Club. The number of clubs has doubled and in addition are the Clef Club, Cromatic Club, Piano Club, MacDowell Club and the Jessie Gaynor Club. The Sherwood Club disbanded two years ago when most of the members left home to go to college, leaving eight clubs with a total membership of more than a hundred. With this number of musicians and students Richmond sees great possibilities in musical advancement and enterprise.

The president of this organization holds the highest office in this line of work. She is the head of the eight clubs in Richmond and sustains the same relation to each club in the community as the state president to the clubs in every town in the state. Perhaps our various clubs have never thought of it in this way and have not realized their obligation to this leader. The Junior Club is a most interesting factor and great concern is being aroused everywhere in its interest. Mrs. Alunson Trigg, of Glasgow, is the state chairman of the Juniors and within the next year will be better known and organized for more efficient effort.

The Piano Contest will take place the first of June and Mrs. Chenault will announce the exact date a little later, as well as the chairman who shall look after this contest.—Mrs. Pickels, Chairman of Publicity, K. F. M. C.

Story for Miss May

Ralph E. Renaud, newspaperman, well known in New York, wrote "Eden and Return" which stars Doris May at local theatres Saturday. The author at present is on the staff of the New York Tribune. He is one of the best known newspaper writers in the country and believes that motion picture audiences like to laugh. The picture is one of the year's best comedies.

DORIS MAY in "EDEN AND RETURN"

The circus, with its wild animals, its thrills and excitement, its color and action, is without doubt in a class by itself as entertainment with the most universal appeal. "Miracles of the Jungle" has these same elements of wild beasts, adventure, suspense, thrills in motion picture form, intensified by actual clashes between men and animals and between explorers and cannibals, with sensations in the matter of thrills far outdistancing anything possible in a circus. Second installment at local theatres Monday.

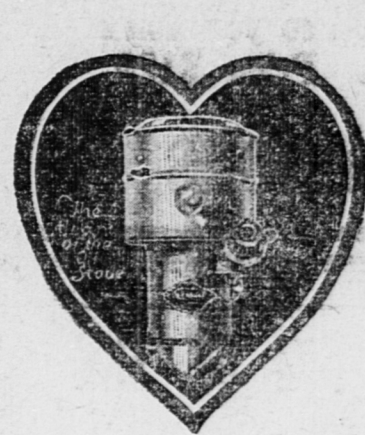

Did She Do Right?

Did Anna Jansen, dancing girl, who shot and killed her common law husband in "The Woman God Changed" which comes to local theatres Monday, because he cast her off for another, do the right thing? See the picture before you condemn this charming woman played by Sena Owen. It is a remarkable photoplay and said to be one of the best ever booked for local houses.

Better Cooking at Less Cost

You won't know how well you can cook on an oil stove until you have one equipped with the which gives you the advantage of a gas stove. This patented burner mixes the kerosene with air, producing a double flame which you can regulate to any degree of intensity and concentrates the heat on the cooking utensils.

Made of one piece of brass—no delicate parts—rust proof, leak proof. Most satisfactory results at least fuel cost. Let us demonstrate this wonderful patented burner—also the even-heating Kero-Cas oven for perfect baking and roasting.

THE END OF ALL—
AND THE BEGINNING!

One stinging moment of disillusionment—and a doting love-life shattered.

Maddening jealousy—a fatal shot—and another moth of Broadway's lights fleeing from the law!

Then far to the south, on a sun-kissed island washed by summer seas, two lonely victims of wreck. The woman who killed and fled. The man who was sent to bring her back.

Is there anything bigger than law, bigger than duty, bigger than love? Come see this heart-stirring romance of a woman who learned to know.

Other organizations whose meetings will swell the attendance of the educational session are the State Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Association, the Kentucky Music Teachers' Association, the County School Superintendent's Association and the Kentucky Negro Educational Association.

Among prominent speakers on the program will be Dr. John L. Tigert, United States Commissioner of Education; Miss Rose Morgan, Columbia University; Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education, Boston; Dr. M. I. Burton, president of the University of Michigan; and Miss Julia Wade Abbott, of the United States Department of Education.

An interesting feature of the convention will be a series of practical demonstrations in physical education by Louisville high school and the members of the Louisville Physical Education society.

TOWN BOYS GIVE EASTERN A WORK-OUT

Eastern Normal won her first baseball game of the season over a nine from Richmond by a score of 10 to 1 Friday afternoon. The Maroon and White received better pitching than the local outfit which was largely responsible for her victory. Lewis started in the box and held the town boys at bay for four innings, when he was relieved by Coleman. In the fourth inning with only one man down, the bases were filled, looked anything but rosy for Lewis, but he pulled out of the hole by striking out McKinney and Lilly in succession. Lewis looked like he had as much stuff as ever and that he will be Eastern's first string pitcher is assured. Coleman has good prospects of developing into a helpful pitcher.

Abe Oldham started the game for the town aggregation, but had a short life in the box. Little, first up, hit to left for asingle. Ab walked the next three men. By that time Manager Harold Oldham thought that his little brother had had enough for the afternoon and called on Martin who finished the game.

Eastern scored three runs in the first inning due to Oldham's wildness. They chalked up another in the second on Potter's single, his stolen base and two outs at first. The next inning was the only one in which they really got next to Martin. Four clean bingles netted four runs. Stephenson hit to center for a double and scored on Mainous' single to the same field. Mainous scored on Dunaway's double to right. Dunaway and Crutcher scored later. Three more runs were added in the fifth due to three errors and Little's third hit.

Dunaway made a nice running catch off Keith's bat in the first inning, but to "Daddy" Deatherage goes the fielding honors. In the first inning Dunaway hit a hot liner to right. Deatherage started for it but it looked as if he did not have a chance. He reached out one hand, stabbed the ball and almost lost his balance, but held the ball.

The town boys scored in the sixth when Carter tripled to right and rode home on McKinney's out at first.

In the fifth Johnson hit a high fly to Crutcher. He got under it but muffed. Dunaway, who had run over to back up Crutcher, caught it as it came over Bill's shoulder.

Eastern's next two games are with Sue Bennett Memorial at London, the 14 and 15 of April. Many fans are saying that Eastern is not as strong as last year. This team is much better balanced. Of course, Combs, Lackey, Rice and Gray will be missed, but when the other players arrive next term the team will be one of the best the institution has ever produced. Coach Hembree feels that he has a better prospect for a winning team than he had at this time last year.

A FRIEND IN NEED A FRIEND INDEED

Writes Mrs. Hardee Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Calif.—"I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor every month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sanative Wash. I at once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a 'friend indeed,' for you were a 'friend in need.'"
—Mrs. GEORGE HARDEE, 1043 Byram St., Los Angeles, California.
